Vote: 3/0/0 CV

Wiki AD-Hoc committee notes:

- a. Process = Frame Maker (Adobe) → HTML → Microsoft Access Database and back
- b. add ASHRAETerminology.org link to the main tool bar
- c. change dates in access database when any change is made
- d. Sub and super scripts need to be resolved.
- e. Some broken lines and errors for some definitions remain
- f. Propose website link to print to PDF full document for a fee

Wish List

- g. Add and check cross references or links (i.e. Boiler to Condensing Boiler, etc.)
- h. Add Graphics or pictures

Biorol: Can the Wiki be sited on other sites without any reference or link –

Per current website: "If you use ASHRAEwiki content in a publication, cite the source as ASHRAE."

Per current website: "Comments on ASHRAEwiki and on individual terms are invited. To comment, send an email to wikieditor@ashrae.org. Comments will be forwarded to TC 1.6 for consideration during the semiannual update cycle.

Comments on definitions in periodic-maintenance standards will be sent to the cognizant committee for consideration in the next revision of the document. Comments on definitions in continuous-maintenance standards should be submitted as continuous-maintenance proposals. Information regarding the submittal of continuous-maintenance proposals can be found here."

Handbook report: Fundamentals Chap 37/38 – 2015 Issue.

Next Update 2019 need graphic symbols, and colors

Interest in STD-134; HVAC Graphic symbols

May need to add colors to handbook graphic symbols.

Billedaux absent. New company is demanding his attendance at another industry organization and will not fund ASHRAE or ASHRAE sponsored event.

Will seek assistance from students or YEA members for updates to AutoCAD, Revit, MEP 3D, Bentley, etc.

Research Report: no RATR and WS in view

SSPC-134 no meeting in New York

Reviewed some of ASHRAE Terminology layout in Access. Art will add checkboxes for reviewers so independent reviews can take place and can be tracked.

Adjourn; 6:20pm
